

Wednesday Evening Children's Series

July 18 - Andy the Music Man

Andy mingles traditional and original songs and novelty, delighting and involving kids through sing-a-longs, dancing, play-acting and storytelling.

July 25 - Catskills Puppet Theater – Sister Rain and Brother Sun

This musical nature-tale features lots of audience participation and Brother Sun, a huge, talking sun face seven feet in diameter with movable mouth and eyes! The story is acted out by large, animated rod puppets with finely chiseled features and colorful sets and costumes.

August 1 - Seth and the Moody Melix

Join the newest local children's band for a fun and exciting multi-cultural musical experience designed not only to entertain, but to educate children!

August 8 - Jim Bruchac

James Bruchac is an award winning author, storyteller, animal tracker and wilderness survival expert. James will share some his favorite stories including various Native legends, Adirondack tall tales, and animal interactions. Story lovers of all ages will be taken on a journey of discovery and laughter!

August 15 - The Zucchini Brothers

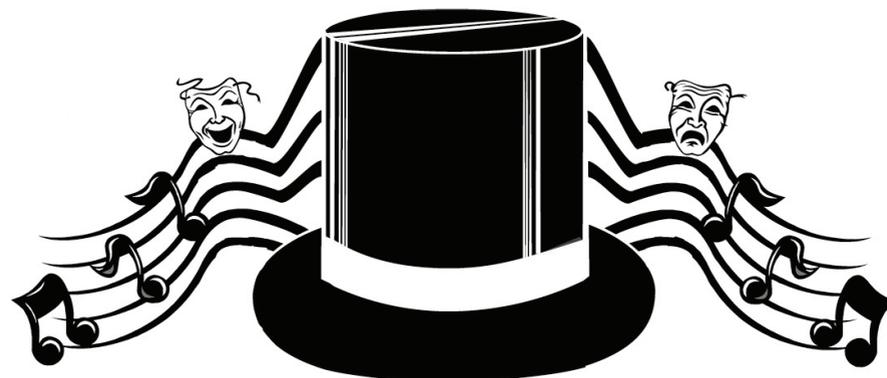

Zany foot tapping music with "Words of Wisdom". This band of brothers: Jack on Guitar, Steve on Keyboards, Sam on Drums (each his own character, all of whom sing) offers up a musical stir-fry of styles. You never know just what these three zany guys will do!

Special thanks to Starpoint Church, Roscoe Lilly and the many volunteers for providing free refreshments during our family series!

Sunday Evening Performances

June 24 - Clifton Park Community Chorus

An energetic, fun-loving multigenerational group singing seasonal songs to show tunes, classic to contemporary, toe-tapping to tender, melodious and memorable.

July 1 - 7 Bridges Road - A Tribute to the Eagles

Seven of the area's finest vocalists and musicians coming together to present the body of work that is the legacy of America's premier vocal rock band, the Eagles. Members of the band also relate interesting stories about the songs and the members of the Eagles and their influences, all while presenting a highly entertaining and exciting show!

July 8 - Hellcat Maggie

Capital Region's High Energy Celtic Rock Band. Not one for laying claim to being Irish traditional or punk rock, HellCat Maggie is the sum of it's elements brought by its diverse 7-member band.

July 20 & 21 - "Singin' in the Rain, Jr."

Presented by Not So Common Kids theatre camp.

5:00 pm start

July 13-15, 19-22 - "Thoroughly Modern Millie"

Summer musical performed by Clifton Park Not So Common Players. Show starts at 8:00 p.m. Thoroughly Modern Millie tells the story of a small-town girl, Millie Dillmount, who comes to New York City to marry for money instead of love – a thoroughly modern aim in 1922, when women were just entering the workforce. Millie soon begins to take delight in the flapper lifestyle, but problems arise.

July 29 - Moriah Formica

Standout powerhouse 17-year-old singer/songwriter/musician from Season 13 of The Voice. With a rocker soul much older than her years, Moriah's rich voice will bring out the love of Rock in everyone!

August 5 - Georgie Wonders Big Band

18-piece big band orchestra playing the Big Band Sounds of the 30's and 40's, music from the 50's, 60's, 70's and more, Sinatra to Santana.

August 12 - Big Sky Country

A high energy modern country band, made up of the Capital Region's best musicians, all having a great time putting on a fun show of modern country music for their fans.

This series is brought to you by the Town of Clifton Park. We would like to thank all our sponsors for their support of this musical series!

All performances at Clifton Common Stage (next to basketball courts.) Performances begin 7:00 p.m. rain or shine, unless otherwise noted. Lawn chairs are welcome. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted on the premises.
