2011 Fall Music Series

at Historic Grooms Tavern

October 14 at 7:00pm

HeartsEase is a unique musical group from the Capital District, specializing in instrumental, acoustic Colonial, Dutch, and English country dance music. The band performs in an elegant but playful way, improvising harmonies and counter-melodies to beautiful tunes from the 16th century up to the present. These five enthusiastic musicians enjoy playing period music and wearing period clothing, for Dutch settlement, Colonial, 1812, Victorian, Welsh, and German events.

Jeff Brisbin is a songwriter's songwriter. His songs will resonate within you. They always tell a story; sometimes you might wonder if he's telling your story. When he "covers" a song, he makes it his own, and when he plays you one of his originals, he'll touch your heart.

Singer/songwriter Rich Ortiz had no choice but to become a musical performer. For the past ten years, Rich has been focusing all his talents and time on his acoustic solo act, playing guitar, harmonica, and pedal bass with his feet, and turning heads with his vocals! His music is best described as funk folk pop. Rich is a truly rare, authentic talent. Part of the Town of Clifton Park's First Friday events.
