

Town employees show artistic side at exhibit

Free event at Grooms Tavern highlights quilts, photographs, paintings and more

About 70 residents visited Grooms Tavern on Friday, March 6 to view the artwork of several town employees and their families at the town's second-annual Visual Talents Exhibit.

Art displays filled the tavern's rooms and refreshments were served in the tavern's storefront.

"It was great to see some of the talent on display by town employees," said Town Clerk Pat O'Donnell, who attended Grooms Tavern Friday night.

"I'm pleased that the Town Board has supported this event and I'm looking forward to seeing even more great works of art next year."

Exhibits included:

- Photography
by Shaun Bertok
- Oil painting
by Irene Botch
- Watercolor and oil painting
by Teresa Brobston
- Airbrushing
by John Dworak
- Quilting
by Jamie Hanley
- Quilted bags
by Sonia Houck
- Beaded Christmas balls
by Sandy Konsella
- Photography and Jewelry
by Myla Kramer
- Knit scarves
by Janice Semanek

Deputy Town Clerk Teresa Brobston pours chocolate into a fountain as part of the food and beverages served at Friday's event.

Director of Parks, Recreation and Community Affairs Myla Kramer, left, shows off her photography and hand-made jewelry to Account Clerk Shari Washer.

Quilts made by temporary Receptionist Jamie Hanley hang in Grooms Tavern. Hanley displayed about a dozen different quilts.

