

Town Supervisor Phil Barrett awards Key to Clifton Park to two town residents

March 1, 2011

Office of the Supervisor

Town Supervisor Phil Barrett awarded the Key to Clifton Park to two town residents for their contributions to the community at the Monday, Feb. 28 Town Board Meeting. Barrett honored Carol Hotaling, known as the “Yellow Ribbon Lady” for her support of the armed services. Hotaling has handmade thousands of yellow ribbons and led the effort to establish New York’s statewide Yellow Ribbon Day on April 9. Above left: Carol Hotaling, second from left, stands with Barrett and Halfmoon Town Supervisor Mindy Wormuth, left. At far right is Carol Hotaling’s son, Halfmoon Councilman Paul Hotaling. Barrett also presented the Key to Clifton Park to Beverly Czub for her community service. Czub has actively attended Clifton Park Town Board meetings since 1972, drove a bus for the Shenendehowa School district for nearly 20 years, is a member of the Board of Directors of the Shenendehowa Adult Community Center and is involved in a number of other community organizations. Above Right: Barrett stands with Czub and her husband Bob.