OFFICE OF THE SUPERVISOR

SUPERVISOR PHIL BARRETT ANNOUNCES VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY AT MCKENNA MILITARY COURTESY ROOM

Town Supervisor Phil Barrett has announced a volunteer opportunity for residents at the Captain John McKenna IV Military Courtesy Room at Albany International Airport.

The Military Courtesy Room welcomes all military personnel from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. daily on the third floor of the airport. Organizers are looking for volunteers to staff the room.

The room offers food, drinks and media entertainment in a comfortable setting for all service people who are in transit through the airport. Services include internet, phone, television, video games and DVDs.

Assistance will be provided for all those in need due to travel delays and cancellations as well as family emergencies. Overnight stays can be accommodated in the room or with the partner hotel, the Comfort Inn Airport and Conference Center.
