

Town Supervisor Phil Barrett honors retiring Councilman Sandy Roth

Above: Clifton Park Councilman Sandy Roth, left, shares a smile with Town Supervisor Phil Barrett during the Monday, Dec. 21 Town Board meeting. Roth is retiring at the end of the year and Dec. 21 was his final board meeting as Councilman.

At the meeting, Barrett presented Roth with the Key to Clifton Park, the town's highest honor for service to the community. Both the Town Board and Planning Board passed resolutions this month honoring Roth for his service to the town.

Roth has been on the Town Board since 1992 and was instrumental in a number of town initiatives, including the establishment of an annual Household Hazardous Waste Day. Roth was also a leading advocate for bringing affordable senior housing to Clifton Park.

