

Town hosts largest ever Paper Shredding Day

Over 1,200 pounds of food donated to a local food pantry

May 5, 2011

Office of the Supervisor

The Town of Clifton Park hosted the largest ever Paper Shredding Day on Sunday, May 1 at Clifton Park Center. Residents brought in more than five tons (11,296 pounds) of paper to be shredded and donated 1,213 pounds of food to the Jonesville Food Pantry.

Left: Councilwoman Lynda Walowit moves paper to the shredder. Right: Walowit and Councilman Scott Hughes dump paper to be shredded into a container. Below left: Hughes and Supervisor Phil Barrett receive paper to be shredded and a food donation from a resident. Below Right: The Jonesville Food Pantry accepts the food donation on Wednesday, May 4. From left to right: Food pantry volunteers Nancy Berlin and Nancy VanEvera, 3N Document Destruction Co-owner Bob Neville, Barrett and Food Pantry volunteer Sandy Konsella.

